

Middle School Trivia Questions

1. If you wanted to see the Leaning Tower of Pisa, where would you go? - Italy
2. What is the cell's "brain"? - The nucleus
3. What city is known as the Windy City? - Chicago
4. What is a portrait a picture of? - A person
5. What do you call the study of stars, planets, and galaxies? - Astronomy
6. Sweat is excreted from which part of the dog's body? - Paws
7. What does a chemical symbol represent? - Element
8. Who was the first female vice President of the United States? - Kamala Harris
9. What is a female elephant called? - A cow
10. What is a lucky object you can find in the grass? - A four-leaf clover
11. What is Harry Potter's middle name? - James
12. What is increased by aerobic exercise? - Heart Rate
13. What was the name of the Darling family's eldest child in Peter Pan? - Wendy
14. How many girls attend Madeline's school in Paris? - 12
15. How many minutes are there in a day? - 1440
16. Are worker bees female or male? - Female
17. What is a kakapo? - A parrot
18. What is the square root of a quarter? - A half
19. A greater than 90-degree angle is called what? - Obtuse.
20. The human body has how many bones? - 206
21. What two elements make up water? - Hydrogen & oxygen
22. Animals with a backbone are called what? - Vertebrates
23. What sense is most closely associated with memory? Smell